

John Niederman reads to Children at Kids Kampus on Earth Day

John Niederman, president of Pathfinder Services, Inc. read to children in the four and five year old classrooms Tuesday, April 22, 2008, at Kids Kampus to celebrate Earth Day.

Niederman read books to the children focused on the importance of recycling in the community and discussed what each and every one of us can do to help save the earth. "It is important to share with children the importance of recycling in the community, and how to Reduce, Reuse and Recycle," said Jason Meyer, Communications/Marketing Coordinator for Pathfinder Services, Inc. "Children are the future generation that can help our environment, and with good education our earth can be a better place," Meyer added.

Currently there are enrollment openings in the Playgroup for children ages 18 months to three years old. Also there are enrollment openings at Kids Kampus in the two, three and four year old rooms as well as the Premier Preschool for three and four year olds.

For additional information about Kids Kampus please contact Kids Kampus at (260) 356.0123. Kids Kampus, Huntington, offers child care and preschool services to children from infancy to age 12. Kids Kampus is accredited by the National Academy of Early Childhood Programs and is the only licensed child care center in Huntington County. Kids Kampus can be found on the web at www.kidskampus.org and is a division of Pathfinder Services, Inc., a not-for-profit human services organization based in Huntington.