

YMCA Speaks to Children of Kids Kampus during Family Health and Fitness Day

Todd Latta and Lisa Leist, both from the Huntington YMCA spoke to the children of Kids Kampus during Family Health and Fitness Day at Kids Kampus Early Childhood Center on September 26.

Latta and Leist spoke to the all the children at Kids Kampus on Friday morning that were two and older, and led them in several exercises they can do with their family as well as other activities focused on healthy family fitness.

Pathfinder Services, Inc.'s Communications/Marketing Coordinator Jason Meyer stated, "It is important to educate children on the importance of exercising especially with their families. We are very thankful for Todd and Lisa to take time out of their day to speak to our children as well as our strong partnership with the Huntington YMCA."

Currently there are enrollment openings in the infant, toddler, two, three, four and five year old rooms at Kids Kampus. Tuition discounts are available, call (260) 356-0123 for details!
